DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-26, drawn to a boundary layer turbine, classified in class 415, subclass 90.
 - II. Claims 27-30, drawn to a method of for obtaining power from a geothermal source using a boundary-layer turbine in combination with a heat exchanger, classified in class 415, subclass 1.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the apparatus as disclosed and as claimed does not need the heat exchanger to be used.
3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
4. Should Applicant elect the invention of group I (apparatus claims), the following species election requirement is made.

Art Unit: 3746

5. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: 1) a boundary layer-turbine with multiple single disks as shown in Figs 2-5 and as claimed in claims 1-14; 2) a boundary-layer turbine with a single disk pack as shown in Fig. 6, and as claimed in claims 15-25.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claim is generic.

Applicant is further required to elect one of the following sub species related to the material and surface of the blade: a) the boundary-layer turbine having the blades made of a ceramic material; b) the boundary-layer turbine having the blades coated with a ceramic coating; c) the boundary-layer turbine having the blades coated with a catalyst.

In summary: Applicant is required to elect between the inventions of: apparatus group I or method group II. Should Applicant elect apparatus group I, a species election requirement is made between: the species (1) having multiple single disks, or (2) a single disk pack. Applicant is also required to elect one subspecies regarding the material and surface of the blades, between subspecies: a) blades made of ceramic material; or b) blades coated with a ceramic coating; or c) blades coated with a catalyst.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

6. A telephone call was made to James Goepel on 1/18/2005 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Ehud Gartenberg whose telephone number is 571 272 4828. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday.
